

AMENDMENT TO THE ORDER OF
THE GOVERNOR OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
FOR INDIVIDUALS TO STAY AT HOME

I hereby amend my Order directing "Individuals to Stay at Home" dated March 23, 2020, as amended March 24 and March 25, 2020.

The first sentence of Section 1 of that Order is further amended to read:

All individuals residing in Allegheny County, Berks County, Bucks County, Butler County, Chester County, Delaware County, Erie County, Lackawanna County, Lancaster County, Lehigh County, Luzerne County, Monroe County, Montgomery County, Northampton County, Philadelphia County, Pike County, Wayne County, Westmoreland County, and York County are ordered to stay at home except as needed to access, support, or provide life sustaining business, emergency, or government services.

In addition, an additional sentence is added to the end of Section 1 as follows:

Enforcement of this Order with respect to Berks, Butler, Lackawanna, Lancaster, Luzerne, Pike, Wayne, Westmoreland, and York Counties will commence at 8:00 PM on March 27, 2020.

The Order remains unchanged in every other respect.

GIVEN under my hand and the Seal of the Governor, at the city of Harrisburg, on this twenty-seventh day of March two thousand twenty, the year of the commonwealth the two hundred and forty-fourth.

Below is a list of activities for which the governor's office says people may leave their homes.

- Tasks essential to maintain health and safety, or the health and safety of their family or household members (including pets), such as obtaining medicine or medical supplies, visiting a health care professional, or obtaining supplies they need to work from home
- Getting necessary services or supplies for themselves, for their family or household members, or as part of volunteer efforts, or to deliver those services or supplies to others to maintain the safety, sanitation, and essential operation of residences
- Engaging in outdoor activity, such as walking, hiking or running, if they maintain social distancing
- To perform work providing essential products and services at a life-sustaining business
- To care for a family member or pet in another household
- Any travel related to the provision of or access to the above-mentioned individual activities or life-sustaining business activities
- Travel to care for elderly, minors, dependents, persons with disabilities, or other vulnerable persons
- Travel to or from educational institutions for purposes of receiving materials for distance learning, for receiving meals, and any other related services
- Travel to return to a place of residence from an outside jurisdiction
- Travel required by law enforcement or court order.
- Travel required for non-residents to return to their place of residence outside the commonwealth

The following operations are exempt:

- Life-sustaining business activities
- Health care or medical services providers
- Access to life-sustaining services for low-income residents, including food banks
- Access to child care services for employees of life-sustaining businesses that remain open as follows: child care facilities operating under the Department of Human Services, Office of Child Development and Early Learning waiver process; group and family child care operating in a residence; and part-day school age programs operating under an exemption from the March 19, 2020 business closure Orders.
- News media
- Law enforcement
- The federal government
- Religious institutions

Anyone who is homeless is not subject to the order, Wolf said. But they are strongly urged to find shelter, and government agencies are urged to take steps needed to provide shelter.
